

Average Grade Level of the Class of 2016

The above chart reflects the average grade level in which our fifth grade students performed on the IOWA tests this spring. The national standard is that students in the fifth grade will perform at grade level. Students at St. Thomas the Apostle School performed well above their own grade level in all content areas.